

Genealogical Society has new officers for 1977

The election and installation of the 1976-77 slate of officers of the Walker County Genealogical Society was held Saturday.

Those chosen were Mrs. J.D. Dickenson, president; Mrs. T.E. Humphrey, Jr., first vice president; Mrs. Mary E. Vick Rainey, second vice president; William R. McClintock, third vice president; Mrs. Robert Conner, secretary; Mrs. Joe Malak, Jr., treasurer; Mrs. John I. Owens, registrar; Mrs. William R. McClintock, librarian and Mrs. Brady McCulloch, parliamentarian.

The out-going president conducted the installation in which the new officers were charged with their duties.

Mary E. Vick Rainey displayed records helpful in a successful research trip. She stressed the importance of a thorough survey of needs before leaving and also noted the importance of taking the necessary records upon which to base research.

Other basic pointers were given and members shared their experiences during research trips.

Two new books to be placed in the Huntsville Public Library were presented to the librarian. A donation was made by the members for a book to be given in honor of Mrs. Brady McCulloch for her services as president for the past two years.

Concluding the meeting, Mrs. J.D. Dickenson, the new president, gave a brief acceptance speech.
