

Genealogical Society plans informative presentations

JOSHUA YATES/THE HUNTSVILLE ITEM

The Walker County Genealogical Society has three exciting meetings planned in the coming months. People are encouraged to pick one of the presentations that might interest you and come join the fun. On Saturday, Sept. 17, the theme of the meeting is "Getting started from square one." Clara Malak will present the information. On Saturday, Oct. 15, Janet Miller will talk about the "Wonderful Musty Courthouse records." On Saturday, Nov. 19, Johnnie Jo Dickenson will present the meeting entitled, "Preparing for Library Research." All meetings start at 10 a.m. and the public is always invited.
