

Lance Frederick photo

History book in the making

A family history book about Walker county and its people will be published by the Walker County historical book committee, co-sponsored by the Walker County Historical Commission and the Walker County Genealogical Society as a sesquicentennial project. Members of the book committee, (left to right) are Ellie Wood, Lucy Alice Stewart, Maxine Johnson, Eleanor Randolph, Dr. Mary Francis Park and Juanita Lynch. Families who have lived here for many years, as well as families who are current residents, will be included.

The Kentonville Item