GUERRANT

In the Juan Jose Sanchez Survey of northwest Walker County, there exists a few grave sites that are in such deeply thicketed area of woods as to be almost lost forever. About seven miles from the junction of Highway 75N., down Highway 1696 West, is the old Wilson Homestead. The area held the gathering of the Woodville Church. Across a fence line into former Gibbs Brothers timberland is an old heavy iron gate enclosure. The tombstones which lie outside of the enclosure read:

NAME		BORN	DIED	MISC
Keller, Charity M. Frank	10 Mar 1859	8 Sept 1880 2 yrs
Guerrant, Daisy Infant	4 yr, 1 mo. 9 days	16 Sept. 1878		d/o C.R.\H.M. Guerrant
Guerrant, Henrietta	age 6 days	9 Jan. 1877		d/o C.R.\H.M. Guerrant

The Daisy Infant is the only marked grave in this row and there are other graves a few feet further south of Henrietta grave not marked.

Back across the property line, south and slightly east under heavy brush there are three infant grave markers and a few unmarked (old stones only) graves.

The Wilson and Guerrant Family Histories in the Huntsville and Walker County Bicentennial History Book, page 404 compiled by D'Anne McAdams crews, give some clues about the possible origin of the graves.

Harmony From Walker County Courthouse go West on 11th Street ½ mile, turn on Hwy 75 North. Travel 13.4 miles. Cemetery is on the right side of Hwy 75 North. Cemetery sign is on the left side of Hwy 75.

There are only six people buried in this small cemetery. It is located on the original Jenkinson Farm, now owned by Bob and Pat Eckert. The cemetery area is one area with a small section fenced and is owned and maintained by the descendants of the families. The listing was made by the children of Mary D. Jenkinson McAdams: Kelly Edgar McAdams, Robbie Lee McAdams, Margaret McAdams McDonald, and G. B. McAdams.

Note: Old grave located ¼ mile South of this Cemetery and I ask the old black people around close and it was there when they was going to school in the 1900 and it was a old grave then. Ran over by log trucks so if anything was engraved on it you could not read it now.

Notes:

The older Koehls, who came from Germany to Walker County, Texas, could not speak English well. The stones of Fannie (who died of lockjaw) and John A. (a diptheria victim) give erroneou information. The error was made by the salesman not understanding the broken English. The dates should read:

Fannie E. Koehl	March 10,1866	Aug 02,1881
John A. Koehl	March 14,1855	March 10,1966

The mother of the Flynt children was a Koehl.

Gussy M. Laskie was Augustus Koehl before marriage.

The added information was given by Mrs. Vernon Schuder, a descendant of the Koehl family.

Mark Manning aged 100 years

There is a DAR bronze plaque attached to his tombstone that was placed by Mary Martin Elmore Scott Chapter of Huntsville. He was a Revolutionary Patriot of North Carolina. He came to Texas when he was 97 years of age from Conecuh County, Alabama. His will is recorded in Walker County, Texas.

The 12 graves marked with iron crosses located in the cemetery were graves of slaves. They were the first graves in the Cemetery. This information was given by Mrs. Reba Stewart.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
RAYMOND STEWART

HUSBAND,FATHER,GRANDFATHER
FRIEND AND A CHRISTIAN

HE WILL ALWAYS REMAIN A BLESSING
TO THE LIVES OF ALL WHO KNEW HIM
AND LOVED HIM

PERRY Located north from Huntsville on I-45 to Farm Road 1696 and turn right on dirt road about .8 miles east of the northbound I-45 bridge also known as Rock Quarry Road or the Pinedale Road, and about 40 yards over the north side fence in the pasture at that point. If you are standing in the right place slightly to your right you will see a iron gate with a well used dirt road and two old unused loading chutes. If you cross the fence here walking straight ahead you will cross a old road and you will see a old dead Cedar tree standing in the middle of the Cemetery at the tree line. No marker with names on it just large rocks at the graves.

Notes for Pine Prairie Cemetery

The Pine Prairie Cemetery has a church located on the grounds. In early days the building served as a school during the week and church on Sunday. There is one grave outside of the fence in front, but location is lost. This was a man with the last name of Smith who was called "Swede" because of his language accent. He lived alone, and no one knew anything about him. He was found dead in his small home. The community buried him. This was in the early 1900's. Told by Mr. Phil Wood. The property that the cemetery and church are on was given by Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Cansler, D.D. Eastham, Robert H. Cabiness, and L.L. Laskie.

Riverside Located at Riverside, Texas just off highway #19 and a few yards south of the Trinity River.
