HISTORICAL DEDICATION

James Patton, representing the "Old Three Hundred", hands check donations to, from left, Donna Coffen of the Walker County Historical Commission and Johnnie Jo Dickenson and Verna Baker Banes of the Walker County Genealogical Society. The "Old Three Hundred" consists of descendants of Anglo-American settlers of Texas; Coffen's group plans to use the $500 to aid in its celebration of Walker County's upcoming 150th anniversary, and Dickenson and Banes' group plans to use its $500 to purchase pre-revolutionary books for the genealogy section of the Huntsville Public Library.
