

Family Genealogy Fair 50th anniversary

The Walker County Genealogical Society will host a Family Genealogy Fair to celebrate its 50th anniversary on Saturday, June 20. The celebration will be held at the Walker County Storm Shelter (461 State Highway 75 North) from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. The charter members of the group, along with several Walker County pioneer families, will be honored. There will be displays of memorabilia, local genealogy success stories and WCGS members will be available to discuss the organization and the Dickenson Genealogy/Local History room of the Huntsville Public Library. The Forrest Masonic Lodge will provide BBQ sandwich plates for purchase. Proceeds from the sale will benefit the Forrest Lodge Scholarship fund. Admission is free and the public is invited. For more information, go to the society's website at www.wcgen.com.
