

WCGS Has Luncheon

On Dec. 17 1965

The home of Mrs. J. Rush Stewart provided a beautiful setting Saturday for the annual Christmas luncheon of the Walker County Genealogical Society.

The rooms were aglow with candles and artistic decorations, most of which were the work of the hostess. A striking arrangement in red and green graced the mantel, and a fire in the fireplace added cheer to the occasion.

Mrs. T.E. Humphrey, Jr., society president, had charge of the meeting. Mrs. Joe Malak, Jr., was introduced as a new member.

After a morning of work and the examination of various genealogical books and magazines, the hostess served a lovely luncheon in the Christmas theme. Mrs. Joe Bruce, mother of Mrs. Stewart, joined the group for the luncheon.
