

Walker County Genealogical Society officers are: seated, left to right, Johnnie Jo Dickenson and Dixie Bennett; and, standing, Rexann Mallory, Emma Hill, Gordie Reaves, Ellie Wood, Linda Parrish, Verna Banas and Clara Malak, installing officer.

treasurer, Linda Parrish; registrar, Rexann Mallory; historian, Emma Hill; and librarians, Ellie Wood and Gordie Reaves. Plans are being made for the fall. The genealogical collection at the Huntsville Public Library will be moved from its present location to the meeting room. This will allow researchers more room and relaxed surroundings for researching their ancestors.

The first scheduled meeting of the society is Sept. 16 at 9:30 a.m. in the new room at the public library. The program scheduled will be a conducted tour led by city librarian Judy Hunter and society librarians Wood and Reaves. All members and interested persons are urged to attend.

A special meeting is called for Aug. 25 at 6:30 p.m. A special "lock-in" is scheduled. Anyone interested in genealogy is encouraged to attend this work session. Computers will be available for research aids and it is hoped that all interested persons will come.

Genealogical society elects officers

The Walker County Genealogical Society has announced its election of officers for the 1995-1997 term. They are as follows: president, Johnnie Jo Dickenson; first vice presidents, Eloise Allen and Linda Pettitt; recording secretary, Dixie Bennett; corresponding secretary, Verna Banas;