

TRACING THE FAMILY LINEAGE

MATT WEINTRITT/THE HUNTSVILLE ITEM

Johnnie Jo Dickenson, right, helps Evelyn McDaniel trace her family tree back through history during Friday night's Genealogy Lock-In at the Huntsville Public Library. McDaniel hopes to join Daughters of the American Revolution and several other lineage based organizations. Dickenson is the namesake for the newly renovated genealogical research room at the library. The lock-in is hosted by the Walker County Genealogical Society, for information on the society or to find out about upcoming events visit www.wcgen.com.
